LOS ANGELES, CA (June 6, 2019) – Today, TreePeople announced its annual summer entertainment series, Once Upon A Canyon Night, running on select weekend nights from June 22 through September 7. Once Upon a Canyon Night leverages the power of entertainment to bring awareness to TreePeople (treepeople.org) and their work to inspire and unite the people of LA to plant and care for trees. No longer one of Los Angeles's best kept secrets, Once Upon a Canyon Night has provided culturally diverse entertainment every summer for 17 years. The performers support the work of TreePeople and donate their time to raise funds and awareness. All of the ticket proceeds directly benefit the care and maintenance of the event location, Coldwater Canyon Park - A Certified Wildlife Habitat by the National Wildlife Federation.

TreePeople is excited to share this year's lineup including returning series favorites and new acts. The season includes a diverse set list including stand-up comedy from Tehran and Friends, the American Youth Symphony, a Haunted Hacienda radio play featuring young stars Cree Cicchino, of Mr. Iglesias, and Gustavo Gomez of The Walking Dead, Sinatra RAW with Richard Shelton, music from The Lao Tizer Quartet, as well as a return of the iconic comedy Airplane! The Reading!! with Robert Forster and much more.

The summer series is nestled under the stars of Coldwater Canyon Park in TreePeople's beautiful S. Mark Taper Foundation Amphitheatre, all concealed in the intimate rolling hills overlooking the San Fernando Valley. For tickets and more information, visit treepeople.org/canyonnights, email shows@treepeople.org or call (818) 623-4877.

All proceeds directly benefit the maintenance and care of TreePeople's beautiful 45-acre Coldwater Canyon Park.

About TreePeople TreePeople unites the power of trees, people, and nature-based solutions to grow a more climate-ready LA. The organization inspires, engages and supports Angelenos to take personal responsibility for the urban environment, facilitates collaboration among government agencies, and promotes leadership in grassroots volunteers, students and communities. In this way, TreePeople seeks to build a powerful and diverse coalition to grow a greener, healthier and more water-secure Los Angeles for present and future generations. For more information, visit treepeople.org.

S. Mark Taper Foundation Amphitheatre Dedicated in 1997, this intimate venue hosts theatrical readings, concerts, family & comedy nights, environmental presentations and classes during the summer - all in partnership with the volunteers of Actors Conservatory Ensemble. The amphitheatre was made possible through the generosity of the S. Mark Taper Foundation and several individuals, including Johnny Carson, Candice Bergen, Danny DeVito and Rhea Perlman, Steve Martin and Bonnie Raitt.

Actors Conservatory Ensemble (ACE) ACE returns to co-present this 17th season under the guidance of Jim Hardie, TreePeople's Director of Park Operations, and Eileen Mack Knight, Artios-award winning casting director. A volunteer driven company, ACE members have invested personally in many venue improvements and have donated thousands of hours of their time to make the past 16 seasons come alive.
