TREEPEOPLE SUMMER ENTERTAINMENT SERIES
ONCE UPON A CANYON NIGHT
RETURNS FOR 14TH SEASON UNDER THE STARS

LA's Best Kept Secret Features: Comedian Maz Jobrani, Musicians Dengue Fever, Vocalist Billy Valentine, Disney's "Zootopia," "Airplane! The Reading!!" and More!

Presented in Partnership with Actors Conservatory Ensemble at the S. Mark Taper Foundation Amphitheatre

LOS ANGELES, CA (THURSDAY JUNE 16, 2016) – TreePeople (www.treepeople.org) today announced its 14th summer entertainment series, Once Upon A Canyon Night, running on select weekend nights from July 23 through September 17. The summer series is nestled in the woods and set under the stars in TreePeople's beautiful S. Mark Taper Foundation Amphitheatre at its park headquarters, Coldwater Canyon Park, at the intersection of Coldwater Canyon and Mulholland Drive in Beverly Hills.

Consistently named one of Los Angeles' best kept secrets, Once Upon A Canyon Night provides patrons a special series of shows including great stand-up comedy from Maz Jobrani, vocalist Billy Valentine, a performance from psychedelic "Khmer rock" band Dengue Fever, a screening of Disney's "Zootopia," a return of the iconic comedy "Airplane! The Reading!!" and much more. Seating capacity at the intimate venue is 280, and it features on-site parking and handicapped access, all concealed in the hills above Coldwater Canyon. For tickets and more information visit www.treepeople.org/canyonnights, email shows@treepeople.org or call (818) 623-4877.

About TreePeople

TreePeople unites the power of trees, people, and nature-based solutions to grow a more climate-resilient city as the Los Angeles region faces historic drought and a hotter, drier future. The organization inspires, engages and supports Angelenos to take personal responsibility for the urban environment, facilitates collaboration among government agencies, and promotes leadership in grassroots volunteers, students and communities. In this way, TreePeople seeks to build a powerful and diverse coalition to grow a greener, healthier and more water-secure Los Angeles for present and future generations. S. Mark Taper Foundation Amphitheatre

Dedicated in 1997, this intimate venue hosts theatrical readings, concerts, family & comedy nights, environmental presentations and classes during the summer - all in partnership with the volunteers of Actors Conservatory Ensemble. The amphitheatre was made possible through the generosity of the S. Mark Taper Foundation and several individuals, including Johnny Carson, Candice Bergen, Danny DeVito and Rhea Pearlman, Steve Martin and Bonnie Raitt.
